

I support the right of a company like XMRadio to be allowed to broadcast as they do. I believe this right includes the ability to broadcast traffic and weather. Any attempt to stop satellite radio is purely unfair and probably unconstitutional.